

Hello Psychotherapists!

Are you interested in sharing your experiences in integrating
Buddhist practice into clinical practice?

We would LOVE to hear your stories!

Please consider taking part in this study!

We want an interview with you to learn about your story!

In the interview, you are invited to share your experiences in integrating your
Buddhist practice into your therapeutic works.

We are looking for individuals who are:

- Comfortable communicating in English
- Obtain a psychotherapist registration through registration authorities
- Eligible to practice in Canada
- Buddhist Faith
- Willing to share how their practice of Buddhism is used in their therapeutic practice and professional development
- Willing and able to attend a 90-minutes interview and a 30-60 minutes follow-up interview over the phone, Zoom or Skype for Business.
- Comfortable with audio-recording during an interview.

If you can answer YES to the above and are interested in participating in the study or want more information,

Please contact Hung Hsuan Wu (Sandy) at hwu@adler.edu or Dr. Asa-Sophia Maglio at amaglio@adler.edu

All participants will receive a 10-dollar Tim Hortons gift card regardless of whether they complete the research.
